Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Sgt. Forbragd was patrolling Wheaton Way, in the area of Sheridan Road when he observed a Harley Davidson style motorcycle traveling northbound at a high rate of speed. Using his mobile radar, Sgt. Forbragd locked the speed of the motorcycle at 61 mph. Sgt. Forbragd turned his vehicle around and accelerated to catch up. As he was closing the distance, Sgt. Forbragd activated his overhead emergency lights and siren in an attempt to gain the motorcycle riders attention and initiate a traffic stop. This lasted approximately 20 seconds. The motorcycle continued at a high rate of speed northbound, and did not stop. Upon realizing the vehicle was not going to stop, Sgt. Forbragd turned into a parking lot, deactivated his emergency lights and turned off the pursuit path. Sgt. Forbragd was unable to obtain a license plate for the motorcycle. Upon my review of his report and video, I believe his actions were consistent with BPD policy.
