Narrative

Supervisor Summary

On 04/01/22 at approximately 1238 hours Officer Forbragd advised he was attempting to stop a red Nissan Xterra for a traffic violation (no front plate). He initially got behind the vehicle in the Oyster Bay Chevron parking lot and attempted the traffic stop by activating his emergency lights. He had a civilian rider with him.

As he got behind the vehicle it went into reverse and started backing up quickly. The driver almost struck the building while backing up. Officer Forbragd activated his emergency siren to ensure the driver knew he was trying to stop him and the driver refused to stop and accelerated at a high rate of speed onto Oyster Bay and then W/B onto Kitsap Way.

Officer Forbragd did not pursue after the vehicle, stayed in the parking lot and deactivated his equipment. He advised dispatch that the vehicle fled and gave the description. He remained in the parking lot for about 30 seconds while giving description to dispatch ensuring he was not in the line of sight of the violator anymore so he knew the police were not behind him. He then drove onto Oyster Bay and waited at the red light to turn onto Kitsap so he could begin checking the area.

The vehicle was located parked in the parking lot with a female around it and the back passenger door open. He observed a male who he recognized as the driver walking away from it briskly. The male was later identified as, Isaac RUPRIGHT and fled on foot after being told he was not free to leave. A foot pursuit ensued and the subject was arrested for the felony eluding, a DOC warrant, and resisting arrest.

I see no violation of policy or law.
