Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Cpl. Chesney observed a white Dodge truck with a white canopy at the Speedway gas station on Wheaton Way. The license plate on the truck did not belong to it. The license plate was D49404A, which belongs to a Cadillac SUV. Cpl. Chesney observed a suspect, later identified as Daniel Golden, get into the truck and drive off going Northbound on Wheaton Way. Cpl. Chesney followed the vehicle as it went North. The truck turned onto Sylvan Way and into the 7/11 parking lot. Cpl. Chesney was going to stop the truck due to the license plate not matching the vehicle in the parking lot. Instead of parking, the truck drove straight thru the parking lot and back onto Wheaton Way. Cpl. Chesney attempted to stop the vehicle in the area of Broad St and Wheaton Way utilizing his emergency lights and sirens. The driver of the white truck accelerated away from him, vice stopping, despite Officer Chesney having both his lights and siren activated. As the vehicle was approaching Riddell Rd, it started driving in the wrong lane. Cpl. Chesney turned off his lights and siren. Cpl. Chesney slowed his vehicle and turned around in front of Fred Myers to break line of sight with the vehicle he was trying to stop and so he could go back and meet with the clerk at the Speedway gas station.

The entire eluding event was about 10 seconds from the times the patrol car lights were activated until termination and covered about one block.

I reviewed the applicable video for this event (dash cam and body cam) and found Cpl. Chesney's actions to be legal and within policy.
