Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Sgt. Forbragd's report states in part: I was on patrol in the area of Kitsap Way and Auto Center Way when I observed a vehicle heading E/B on Kitsap Way. I was turning off of Auto Center Way and turned in behind the vehicle. The vehicle appeared to have either the trunk and/or the back plate bungie corded shut and it was flopping as it was driving. The driver made a quick turn into the turn lane for N/B Highway 3 and I was able to get behind it and notice the tabs appeared expired. I was able to obtain the plate of WA LIC #AFU2444. I ran the records check through CENCOM and followed behind it as it entered Highway 3.

ELUDING: I drove behind the vehicle and noticed as we approached Highway 3, the driver made it a point to get a semi truck in between us. CENCOM advised the return showed a white 2000 Honda Accord with expired tabs on 09/13/2021 and the vehicle had been sold on 03/06/21. This vehicle was a black Honda and did not match the plate. As we approached Austin Drive the driver appeared as though he was going to take the exit but did not. As we got closer to Chico Way I was able to get behind it again. I activated my emergency lights and siren to get the drivers attention to stop. We were on the Highway so I wanted to get the noise of the siren to him so he could hear. The driver refused to stop and continued driving, accelerating away from me. I looked at my speedometer and it was showing over 90 indicating to me the vehicle was accelerating to 100 MPH and clearly eluding me. I pulled into the right lane, turned off my equipment, and took the Chico Way exit. I then heard KCSO advise the vehicle passed them N/B at Eldorado at a high rate of speed. I was not able to relocate the vehicle.

I reviewed the dash cam and body cam footage from the elude. From the time Sgt. Forbragd initiated his emergency lights and siren until he terminated the attempt to stop the vehicle was 24 seconds. Sgt. Forbragd de-activated his emergency equipment and slowed down, pulling into the right lane of travel on the highway to safely exit onto Chico Way. I find Sgt. Forbragd's actions to be within policy
