Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Cpl. J. Ejde attempted to stop two motorcycles for not having plates on them. When he activated his emergency lights and sirens the two did not stop and continued weaving in and out of traffic. Cpl. Ejde did not continue after them and turned off his equipment while pulling over.

Cpl. J. Ejde was not able to get any plate information or suspect information from the motorcycles. He did get video of them and video was captured on my camera when the motorcycles turned in front of me on Callahan and Cherry. I did not engage or attempt to engage the motorcycles I just had my camera activated as they turned in front of me after fleeing.

I viewed Cpl. J. Ejde's dash camera footage and it shows him trying to catch up to the motorcycles on 11th Street from Warren Avenue. Once they were on 8th Street heading to Warren Avenue Cpl. J. Ejde activates his lights and siren at the 30 second mark. The motorcycles continue and turn N/B on Wheaton Way and as Cpl. J. Ejde turns onto Wheaton Way the motorcycles weave in and out of traffic and Cpl. J. Ejde deactivates his equipment and pulls over. He terminates at about 50 seconds on the video.

Cpl. J. Ejde made the correct decision to terminate and not continue after the motorcycles. He even turns off the path of them onto 11th Street at his earliest opportunity. Cpl. J. Ejde was within policy.
