Narrative

Supervisor Summary

On 12/03/22 Cpl. Chesney attempted a traffic stop on a vehicle for a possible DUI and switched plates on the vehicle. Cpl. Chesney attempted to stop the vehicle on Auto Center Way and Kitsap Way. The driver did not stop for Cpl. Chesney and accelerated away running a red light at Shorewood Drive at Kitsap Way. Cpl. Chesney deactivated his emergency equipment when it was clear the driver was not going to stop for him. The roads were wet, icy, and there was snow on the ground making it somewhat difficult to stop fast without sliding. I watched Cpl. Chesney's dash camera and he deactivates his lights at Shorewood when the driver did not want to stop. He appears to slow to make the turn onto Shorewood but is unable to due to the road conditions. He continues to Ostrich Bay which was the next available right turn off the path and makes the turn onto Ostrich Bay to break line of sight with the suspect.

I was driving W/B on Kitsap Way when the subject fled and he passed me as I was near Oyster Bay. I noticed the driver was still speeding and driving recklessly and I made no attempt to try and stop him or turn around on him, I did activate my dash camera in hopes of getting video of the driver. As I got to where Cpl. Chesney was on Ostrich Bay I noticed he was still pulled over on Ostrich Bay and had not followed the path of the vehicle. The driver was possibly identified as, Joshua Henning, who has been involved in several eludes throughout the neighboring areas. The truck he was driving was believed to be a stolen vehicle as the plates did not match the vehicle.

I find Cpl. Chesney's actions to be within policy and he made the correct decision not to engage in a pursuit and took the first available turn off that he could when he terminated.
