Greetings:

The Kennewick Police Department has completed its search for records and we have copied 13 files in response to your public records request. Your request is considered satisfied and complete today as our final and definite action.

Your previous payment includes your first 15 files.

- Installment 1 included 3 files
- Installment 2 included 2 files
- Installment 3 includes 5 files
- Installment 4 includes 3 files

For a total of 13 files. No further payment is due at this time.

Transmitted to you today via the records portal (SEE HYPERLINK BELOW TO RETRIEVE RECORDS) are 3 attachments; no redactions have been made and no information has been withheld.

If you have any questions or need further assistance with this request, please contact me within 10 business days. However, any new requests for additional information, changes to the records requested under this request and other such modifications must be submitted as a new records request. Please note that this request will not be reopened for any reason. Now that your request is closed, the Public Records Act's one-year statute of limitations to seek judicial review has started to run because the agency does not intend to further address the request.

Thank you,
