Arrests are not entirely self-initiated officer events. Many arrests result from 9-1-1 calls where crimes are reported and victims want to pursue criminal charges. Some crimes, such as domestic violence assaults, contain mandatory arrest provisions which strip officers of discretion in these situations. Other arrests may result from officers being pro-active such as DUI's and recovering stolen vehicles.

Even with the above background, the percentages of all arrests are within 10% of the racial percentages found in Lacey's general population:
