Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Det. Cpl. M. Nelson ran a suspicious vehicle at 9th and Rainier bearing license plate #BTW1450. The plate returned as a stolen license plate out of KCSO, stolen from a similar vehicle. He lost sight of it on e/b 9th Street from Rainier.

Officer Edwards located a similar vehicle traveling e/b on 13th Street, passing Olympic College. He was too far behind to get the plate. Officer Chesney then caught up to the vehicle as it turned from s/b Naval to w/b 11th Street. At this I was on e/b 11th at a red light. As the vehicle passed me I confirmed it was the one bearing the stolen plate. I turned around and observed the suspect vehicle and Officer Chesney make a left turn onto s/b Rainier Ave. As I arrived on Rainier Ave, I could see Officer Chesney's vehicle ahead of me, turning onto 6th Street; I could not see the suspect vehicle. At 1218 hrs Officer Chesney advised the suspect vehicle was fleeing and running stoplights on w/b 6th Street. He advised he was not pursuing. He last saw the vehicle on s/b Callow and then w/b on Burwell. I observed Officer Chesney turn the opposite direction, onto n/b Callow Ave (away from the path of the fleeing vehicle).

The driver was seen by several officers and identified as Derrick Dupuis. Dupuis has a DOC Felony Warrant and is DWLS 3. The plate was stolen from county, reference KCSO #K22-002350. The Ford Explorer was likely stolen from Pine Road reference Case B22-001125. The plate from the stolen vehicle was recovered attached to the vehicle that had its plates stolen.

Officer Chesney complied with BPD Policy. He did not engage in a pursuit, deactivated his emergency equipment and turned from the path of the pursuit.
