Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Cpl. Chesney attempted to stop a vehicle in the Winco parking lot. The driver did not pull over right away and continued to drive in the parking lot when Cpl. Chesney had his lights activated. Cpl. Chesney activated his siren to get the drivers attention and the driver still did not stop and continued out of the parking lot onto Kitsap Way. The vehicle ran some red lights to elude Cpl. Chesney. Cpl. Chesney did not pursue after the vehicle and had deactivated his equipment in accordance with policy giving information as to where the vehicle was last seen. Cpl. Chesney was able to identify a suspect and is still working on establishing PC to arrest the subject.

I watched Cpl. Chesney's dash camera and it shows him pulling behind the vehicle which is parked. He activates his lights and starts to get out. The vehicle drives away towards the front of the store. Cpl. Chesney drives behind it and activates his siren. The vehicle accelerates away making a turn to Ostrich Bay and Cpl. Chesney deactivates his equipment as the vehicle is clearly eluding him at this point. The vehicle gets out of his line of sight as it turns onto Kitsap Way running a red light. Cpl. Chesney drives to the red light, stops, and when it turns green he looks for the suspect.

I find Cpl. Chesney's actions to be within policy.
