NarrativeSupervisor Summary

On 07/14/22, at approximately 1818 hours, Officer Greenhill observed a traffic violation of a motorcycle with no license plate that was stopped on Kitsap Way. Ofc. Greenhill turned around to get behind the vehicle as it turned onto S/B Auto Center Way. The motorcycle then popped a wheelie and sped off. Officer Greenhill activated lights and sirens in an attempt to stop the motorcycle. However, there was light traffic in front of Ofc. Greenhill which caused a fairly large gap between he and the speeding motorcycle. When Ofc. Greenhill finally neared the motorcycle for the stop, near 1st Street, the motorcycle accelerated and took off at an even greater speed. Ofc. Greenhill immediately terminated, shut down lights and sirens and pulled off the roadway. The total time of attempted stop was 49 seconds, however, the total time from when Ofc. Greenhill was undoubtedly attempting to stop the motorcycle and it was apparent the motorcycle was not going yield leading to termination was less than 10 seconds. I read the report and viewed vehicle camera footage. Officer Greenhill's actions were reasonable, within policy, and in compliance with state law. - Sgt. Rodney Rauback #415
