Narrative

Supervisor Summary

VIDEO: This contact was recorded on an Axon body camera, dash camera, and interior camera. The audio and video were later uploaded to the BPD evidence system.

INFORMATION: On 06/26/23 at about 0111 hours I was working uniformed patrol for the City of Bremerton Police Department as the rank of Sergeant assigned to gold grave crew. I was operating a full marked black and white police vehicle with high visibility LED red and blue lights and audible siren. I was also in full Bremerton Police uniform clearly identifiable as a Police Officer. Sergeant Schaeffer was riding with me in the passenger seat also in uniform. We were on patrol in the area of 1st Street and Wycoff Avenue when we observed a red Honda parked on 1st Street east of Wycoff which is odd at this time of night as this is a residential area and there was a male sitting in the drivers seat on his phone. As we went by the male looked up at us and had a shocked look on his face.

FAIL TO STOP: I ran the plate which was on the back of WA LIC #BFX0510 and it returned to a silver 2001 Honda Civic expired in 2001. This was on a red Honda and I suspected the plates were switched since the vehicle was stolen. I turned around in an attempt to get behind the vehicle and when I did the driver started the vehicle and drove N/B through the alley towards Burwell. As he got to Burwell and Callow he turned S/B and I activated my emergency lights. The driver accelerated and did not pull over. He continued in the left lane, then accelerated to a high rate of speed taking up both the lanes of travel and swerving back and forth in a clear attempt to elude me. I did have my siren activated to ensure I had his attention. It was apparent to me he was not going to stop so I deactivated my equipment and we turned onto 1st Street which was the first road we came to so we could turn off his path. the vehicle was last seen leaving the City of Bremerton on Highway 304.

DRIVER: The driver was a white male in his 20's-30's with brown hair and an orange shirt on. The plate returned to 8A who now live in the Spokane Valley area.

DISPOSITION: Report for information.
