Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Cpl. Peterson was traveling northbound on Warren Ave, observed a Hyundai sedan traveling southbound on Warren Ave at a speed of approximately 60 mph. As Cpl. Peterson turned his patrol vehicle around to contact the sedan, the vehicle made a right hand turn on 11th Street to travel westbound from Warren Ave. As Cpl. Peterson turned onto 11th Street, he observed the ahead of him still traveling westbound and extended his distance due to the speed he was traveling. Cpl. Peterson activates his overhead lights and siren to catch up to the sedan. The vehicle proceeds to take a right-hand turn onto Bloomington to travel northbound. Cpl. Peterson attempted to close the distance and as he turned onto Bloomington Ave. Still observing the vehicle, the sedan takes a series of turn with the last one being eastbound on 15th Street from Whitney Ave. Seeing the vehicle had no intentions on stopping due to their speed and series of several turns, Cpl. Peterson announced his termination, deactivating his emergency lights and pulling off to the side of the road.

Officers who were in the immediate area, believed they observed a vehicle matching the description traveling northbound on Snyder Ave from 15th Street. They to, lost sight of the vehicle once it turned onto Snyder Ave and were not following it. Cpl. Peterson positioned his vehicle on 15th Street and Snyder with the hopes of obtaining the license plate and a description of the driver. Prior to this, Cpl. Peterson was unable to obtain a vehicle plate or a good description of the vehicle. A few moments later, the Hyundai passed directly in front of him. Cpl. Peterson pulls out directly behind the vehicle and follows it to obtain the license plate. The driver recognized the patrol vehicle directly behind him and pulled to the shoulder of the road and parked. Seeing the vehicle was now stopped and in park, Cpl. Peterson activated his emergency lights and contacted the driver. Upon interviewing the driver, Cpl. Peterson received odors of intoxication and the driver was arrested and processed for DUI. The driver was transported to Kitsap County jail and booked on his charges.

After reviewing his report and captured video, Cpl. Peterson's actions were within state law and in accordance with BPD Policy.
