Narrative:

On January 6th, 2023, I was asked by Sgt. Hoag to track down and contact Dickson Thomas, the registered owner of the Hyundai used in the robbery, and confirm the vehicle was stolen. At around 1000 hours, I located a new address for Dickson at 600 Ellingson Rd D2, Pacific, WA, and was able to contact Hanalynn who identified herself as Dickson's wife. She at this time told me they were aware the car was stolen and advised me she would have Dickson call me.

At around 1425 hours, and after not hearing back from Dickson, I drove to their apartment again and contacted both parties. Dickson confirmed he was the registered owner of the vehicle, and his cousin Mackrineld was using the car. Hanalynn informed me Dickson did not speak great English and translated for me. They both confirmed Dickson did want to be a victim of the stolen vehicle. I informed both of them that the vehicle was currently being held for evidence and that we would be in contact when the vehicle was released. I did not have Dickson sign any forms as I was recording the contact with my body-worn camera. The video was later uploaded onto evidence.com.
