Narrative

Supervisor Summary

Officer observed a motorcyclist operating a motorcycle that was spewing a large amount of dark smoke. He attempted to stop it because the smoke obscured the license plate. The cyclist continued southbound on Callow Avenue from Burwell Street at slow speeds at first but after passing 1st Street and continuing onto Charleston Boulevard, the motorcyclist then sped up and passed cars without due care or caution. Officer deactivated his lights, discontinued his attempt to stop the bike and turned off at the next cross street (Cambrian Avenue).

There is no further suspect description and the license plate of the motorcycle was not able to be verified.
