Investigative Information

Means:		Motive:
Vehicle Activity:		Direction Vehicle Traveling:

Synopsis:	Sean Mosier fled in a vehicle during a traffic stop and crashed. Sean attempted to flee the vehicle and was taken into custody. The vehicle had switched plates and ignition damage but came back registered to his father. Sean had a confirmed felony DOC warrant for his arrest as well. Sean was booked into Pierce County Jail for Felony Elude, Felony Warrant and Resisting Arrest.

Narrative:	On September 23rd, 2019 at approximately 1936 hours, I observed a brown Toyota Camry in front of me as it was traveling east bound on 81st St E from Myers Rd E. The vehicle had failed to use its turn signal as it made a right turn onto 179th Ave E from 81st St E. A check of the vehicle registration (WA/BN9945) showed the vehicle should be white, not brown. From my training and experience, I know individuals will switch license plates to conceal the vehicle being stolen. I activated my emergency lights, stopping the vehicle at 83rd St E and 181st Ave E. I observed the driver was not wearing his safety belt. As I was talking to the driver, I observed the ignition on the vehicle appeared to be damaged (see photographs). The driver advised he did not have his drivers license or any paperwork for the vehicle. In the center console of the vehicle, I observed a wallet that was open and a drivers license in it. The picture on the drivers license looked like the driver of the vehicle. I pointed to the wallet and told the driver I could see his drivers license in the center console. The driver looked where I was shining my flashlight and seemed surprised that his wallet was there. The driver removed his drivers license from the wallet and handed it to me. He was identified as Sean Mosier by his Washington State drivers license. Sean stated the vehicle belonged to his father and did not have proof of insurance. The return for the license plate I ran showed the vehicle was registered to a female out of Olympia, Washington, not a male as Sean said. Sean had placed the vehicle into park but left the vehicle running. While talking to Sean, he kept grabbing the shifter as if he was going to take the vehicle out of park. I requested Officer Marty respond to my traffic stop as I believed the vehicle could possibly be stolen with switched plates. As Officer Marty turned onto 83rd St E and was driving towards us, Sean put the vehicle into drive and sped away. I ran back to my patrol vehicle advising the vehicle was taking off. I observed the vehicle turn left onto 182nd Ave E, heading north bound. I caught up to the vehicle about the 8100 block and had my emergency lights and siren activated. The vehicle was traveling at a speed of approximately 60 MPH in the 25 MPH residential neighborhood street. The vehicle blew the stop sign at 77th St E and began driving north bound on the south bound one way only lane of 182nd Ave E. The vehicle blew a second stop sign and turned right onto 74th St E, heading east bound past Ken Simmons Park (18200 74th St E). This was also a one way road that the vehicle was driving in the wrong direction on. As the vehicle drove past the park, it lost control and slid into the ditch. I observed Sean was attempting to climb out of the driver side window of the vehicle. I was yelling at Sean to stop and he was under arrest. As I approached the vehicle, Sean lunged forward at me as he exited and grabbed onto my outer-carrier vest. When Sean did this, it knocked my radio mic from my vest. With Sean holding onto me, he began pushing me backwards and was taken me to the ground. I grabbed onto Sean and was able to spin him so he fell to the ground on his back with me landing on top of him. I began yelling at Sean to let go of me and could feel him trying to push me off of him. I yelled at Sean to stop resisting and he was under arrest but he continued trying to push me off of him. I delivered three elbow strikes to the left side of Sean's head to try and get him to let go of me. The strikes were effective as Sean let go of me and began trying to block my strikes. As Sean began to cover himself, he began yelling, "I give up!" several times.

At this time, Officer Marty arrived and we were able to take Sean into custody without further force used. Sean kept saying he was sorry and that he "fucked up".

Officer Marty detained the passenger, Kayla Lafleur.

Once in the back seat of my patrol vehicle, I advised Sean of his Miranda Warnings from a pre-printed card to which he verbally acknowledged he understood with "yes". Sean said he was willing to speak to me.

Sean said the vehicle belonged to his father, John Mosier. Sean said he switched the license plates on the vehicle with a friends vehicle because his dad has warrants and did not want to get stopped. Sean said he took off when he saw the second patrol vehicle pulling up because he didn't want to go to jail as he has a felony warrant for his arrest.

I confirmed by VIN the vehicle did belong to John Mosier and the correct license plate is WA/AWH7251. The registration expired on July 16th, 2019.

While I was photographing the vehicle, I observed a syringe between the drivers door and drivers seat as well as a plastic straw "tooter" that was on the drivers side floor board, partially under the seat. Sean said they were his and he uses heroin.

A records check confirmed Sean had a DOC felony warrant (Cause No. 27141012987 - Robbery 2 - High Violent Offender - No Bail) for his arrest.

While being checked on by Medics from the East Pierce Fire & Rescue, Sean stated he had ate an unknown amount of heroin as I was stopping the vehicle.

I issued Sean a notice of infraction for fail to wear safety belt, operating a motor vehicle without insurance, expired registration over two months and switched/altered plates.

The Medics advised they needed to transport Sean to the hospital. Officer Eby followed the ambulance to Allenmore Hospital and stayed with Sean until he was cleared. Officer Eby then transported and booked Sean into the Pierce County Jail on the listed charges.

Officer Marty provided Kayla a courtesy transport to Walmart in Bonney Lake to call for a ride.

The vehicle was impounded by Cascade Towing.

The total distance for the pursuit was approximately .75 miles in length.

The photographs taken were transferred to the Bonney Lake PD X: Drive.

Copies of the impound form and notice of infraction were placed into the case file.

Nothing further.
