NarrativeSupervisor Summary

Corporal J. Ejde attempted to stop a vehicle for a traffic violation. The driver did not stop and fled from the stop N/B onto Wheaton Way from Sheridan Road. Corporal J. Ejde used his siren to get the drivers attention as he turned onto Wheaton Way and the driver continued. Corporal J. Ejde did not follow the vehicle and pulled over where he watched the vehicle continue. Corporal J. Ejde turned off his equipment and pulled over giving the driver time to lose sight of Corporal J. Ejde and Corporal J. Ejde drove with the flow of traffic until the vehicle was well out of his sight. He was able to locate the vehicle pulled over on Herren St after a citizen advised him where it was. Corporal J. Ejde tried to stop the vehicle again when it was pulled over but the driver backed up and fled from him again striking another vehicle which attempted to block him in and assist Corporal J. Ejde. Corporal J. Ejde did not go after the vehicle and watched as it left the area.

I watched the video and tagged it at several moments. At the 41 second mark the driver continues driving at normal speeds and at the 50 second mark he makes a turn N/B onto Wheaton Way after going between two cars and then accelerates. At the 1 minute mark Corporal J. Ejde turns off his equipment. At the 2 minute mark Corporal J. Ejde attempts to locate the vehicle. At the 3 minute mark Corporal J. Ejde locates the vehicle and attempts to get him contacted. The driver backs up and flees the area striking the ball hitch of a vehicle but no damage was done.

The initial reason for pursuit-Traffic violation

The conditions of the pursuit, including time of day, weather conditions, traffic-Dry, heavy traffic, clear

The duration and length of the pursuit-None

Speeds-None

The path of the pursuit-None

How the pursuit, or attempt to elude, was terminated-Officer terminated

Whether the pursuit resulted in a collision-No

Any injuries or property damage-No

Medical treatment-No

The disposition: arrest, citation, etc-PC was established and charges were sent to Prosecutor.

This elude was within policy as Corporal J. Ejde did not engage and made the correct decision to terminate as it does not meet the policy or the law.
