On June 15, 2024, the Poulsbo Police Department received your request for the following records:

"Under the Washington Public Records Act, §42.56 et seq., I am requesting any/all of the following records from the Poulsbo Police Department:

- 1) A list of all vehicle pursuit incidents that your agency was involved in from 2019 through 2023, as a line-level data extract from your records management system (RMS), including incident date, report number, and any/all other RMS data fields that are not required to be redacted by law;
- 2) Policy manuals, rules, and regulations for your agency relating to vehicle pursuits, including record-keeping and data collection on pursuits, that were in effect between 2019 and 2023;

3) Summaries of vehicle pursuit data for your agency, such as what may be contained in internal and/or external publications (annual reports, newsletters, presentations to government officials, etc.) produced between 2019 through 2023.

This information is not being sought for commercial purposes. The Washington Public Records Act requires a response to this request be made within five (5) business days. If access to the records I am requesting will take longer than this amount of time, please contact me with information about when I might expect copies or the ability to inspect the requested records."

The City has identified responsive documents to your request.

Section (1) of your request - we do not have a responsive listing out of our RMS; however, as a courtesy, we have provided you with the date and case number of responsive pursuits.

Section (2) of your request - you have been provided our pursuit policy per year and per update as reflected in the bottom left corner of each. Each new version of the manual, you have been provided this related policy section regardless if there was a change or not.

Section (3) of your request - you have been provided our annual vehicle pursuit analysis.

You will receive a link in a separate email to a copy that is available for download.

The City now considers your request as closed, and, therefore does not intend to further address the request. Any actions to seek judicial review of the City's response to your request must be filed within one year of this notice in accordance with RCW 42.56.550. If you believe that additional responsive records have not been provided or if you have any questions, you may contact our office at 360-779-3113 or by email at policerecords@cityofpoulsbo.com within 30 days of this message.
